Becky Epstein

Chair of Corporate Charitable Giving, Odysseys Unlimited

Becky Epstein has over 40 years of experience working with non-profit organizations along with a 10-year corporate career in distribution and sales, including eight years at Gillette Company.

As a Vice President of the Junior League of Boston in the early 1980s, Becky used her management skills to build the organization's membership and oversee a variety of fundraising opportunities. As a member of the Wellesley Education Foundation in the early 2000s, she chaired the endowment for the Foundation and directed fundraising efforts to surpass the $1 million threshold for the first time. In 2004 Becky chaired State Representative Alice Peisch's campaign and directed her successful run for office.

Currently, Becky is Chair of Corporate Charitable Giving at Odysseys Unlimited and is a member of the Senators Circle for the Mitchell Institute in Portland, Maine.

Becky graduated with a BA in Business from Boston College and holds an MBA in Entrepreneurial Studies from Babson College.

Becky joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors in 2018.
