

Advisor

Hannah Commass

Institutional Portfolio Manager, Fidelity Investments

Hannah Commass is an Institutional Portfolio Manager at Fidelity Investments. Previously she held a position at Spruceview Capital Partners, where she was responsible for building and managing marketable securities portfolios and multi-asset class ESG solutions. Prior to joining Spruceview, Hannah was Director, Investment Strategist with Windrose Advisors. Hannah also served as the Deputy CIO, Public Markets and Director of Strategic Initiatives for the Massachusetts Pension Reserve Investment Management (PRIM) Board. Prior to PRIM, she was at HarbourVest Partners.

Hannah is a wish granter for the Make-A-Wish Foundation, a sustaining member and past President of the Junior League of Boston, a member of The Vincent Club, and a member of the Advisory Board for the Punto Urban Art Museum. Hannah volunteers at the GBFB and has Co-Chaired GBFB's second largest signature event, Women Fighting Hunger, for the last several years. Hannah joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors in October 2020.

Hannah holds a B.A. in Economics from Northeastern University and an M.B.A. from Suffolk University.