

Daniel Levin

Member, Board of Advisors

Member, Audit and Compliance Committee

Member, Governance and Nominating Committee

Daniel (Dan) Levin is a Director and Tax Counsel at The Baupost Group, L.L.C., a Boston-based investment management firm, where he advises on the tax and legal aspects of investment transactions. In addition to his regular responsibilities, Dan spent five years as a member of the Baupost Foundation Advisory Board, a group of employees that examines and recommends grants for Boston-area organizations making meaningful impacts to address distinct issues, including food insecurity.

Prior to joining Baupost, Dan was an associate at Ropes & Gray LLP in Boston. Dan received his BA from the University of Minnesota and holds JD and LLM degrees from Boston University School of Law. Dan joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors in October 2021.