

Mark Luthringshauser

Member, Board of Advisors

Member, Audit and Compliance Committee

Member, Strategic Planning Committee

Mark is a retired senior financial executive with over 35 years of experience in the consumer packaged goods industry. The majority of his career was spent in the food and beverage sector across multiple categories – yogurt (Yoplait/General Mills), juices and fruit spreads (Welch's), ready-to-eat cereal (Weetabix/Barbara's), prepared foods (Elevation Brands) and organic, pasture-raised beef (Verde Farms).

Mark is a Board member and active volunteer at Island Grown Initiative on Martha's Vineyard, whose primary mission is to address food equity and insecurity within the island community. IGI operates the Island Food Pantry. He is also a mentor with SCORE (Service Core of Retired Executives), a national organization dedicated to providing no-cost mentoring and advice to start-ups and existing businesses. Mark joined the Greater Boston Food Bank Board of Advisors in 2024.

Mark earned his MBA from Northeastern University and his BA in Political Science from Hobart College. He enjoys skiing, sailing and global travel.