

Carl Paratore

Member and Treasurer, Board of Directors
Chair, Audit & Compliance Committee
Member, Executive Committee

Carl Paratore leads the internal audit team and risk management practices for Point32Health. As Chief Audit Executive, he is responsible for bringing a systemic and disciplined approach to evaluation and improving the effectiveness of the organization's risk management, control and governance processes. Prior to his current role with Point32 Health, Carl served as an Assistant Vice President with MetLife.

Carl earned his MBA in Finance from Babson College's Franklin W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Carl also holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Babson College. He is a certified public accountant and a certified information systems auditor. Carl is a member of both the Internal Institute of Auditors and the Information Systems Audit and Control Association.

Carl joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Directors in October 2020. He previously served on the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors.