

Michael Schnitman

Member, Board of Advisors
Member, Strategic Planning Committee

Michael Schnitman is Senior Managing Director, High Net Worth (HNW) for SLC Management. Michael joined the firm in 2023 and oversees SLC Management's HNW platform and strategic direction. Michael works in close collaboration with SLC Management's affiliates, harnessing the firm's private asset class capabilities to benefit individual clients.

With a career spanning over 25 years in the industry, Michael has developed a broad and diverse track record, overseeing different business units across the investment management spectrum. Before joining SLC Management, he established and led Mackenzie Investments' alternatives business from startup to scale. Prior to that role, he served as Mackenzie's Head of Product. Michael also held senior leadership roles at Putnam Investments, including product strategy and development, global institutional business management, and corporate strategy.

Michael serves on the Advisory Board of the Greater Boston Food Bank. He holds a Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School and a Bachelor of Arts with Honors in Economics from Trinity College.
